The Robert and Virginia Stanton Endowment

ABOUT THE STANTON ENDOWMENT

Virginia Young Stanton left a $3.5 million bequest to establish this fund in her name and her husband's. The fund was established in 1994 as the Robert and Virginia Stanton Endowment.

Mrs. Stanton moved to the Monterey Peninsula in 1924 as the party and entertainment editor of House Beautiful. Her energy and compassion led her to volunteer for the Monterey Museum of Art, the American Red Cross, and the Community Hospital Auxiliary. She was a member of the Monterey Council of the National trust for Historic Preservation, and had a special interest in Casa Amesti; her husband, the distinguished architect Robert Stanton, was a founding member of the Old Capital Club, based in that historic adobe. In 1983, after Robert's passing, she established an endowment at the Community Foundation for Monterey County for awards to outstanding local architects. Mrs. Stanton named some favorite agencies or types of projects for annual consideration in order of priority; others may also be funded at the discretion of the Community Foundation for Monterey County (CFMC) Board and the Stanton Committee.

STANTON ENDOWMENT GRANTS CALENDAR

Grant proposals are due by 5:00 p.m. on the second Friday of July using our online grant application. For 2019, Approved proposals are funded in November.
STANTON ENDOWMENT PRIORITIES

The Stanton Endowment Grant Committee generally gives priority to one-time special or capital projects, rather than funding ongoing operating support. The CFMC supports capital costs (buildings and facilities) when those capital improvements have the potential to advance greater social benefit. Capital support will be considered for predevelopment expenses and/or for construction costs after the agency has raised at least half of the goal. Applicants are eligible for two capital-related grants: one for predevelopment expenses and one for construction costs.

The Stanton Endowment Grant Committee will consider the public benefits likely to occur as a result of the proposed activities, as well as other details of the proposals such as cost effectiveness, past record of achievement, and fit with the general guidelines and purposes of the Community Foundation and the Stanton Endowment.

The CFMC does not award Stanton Endowment grants to support:

- Individuals, through academic scholarships, fellowships, stipends, travel awards, or the like (however, subsidies to reduce program costs for a group of low-income participants are sometimes called “scholarships” but are eligible)
- Religious activities
- Academic research (however, mission-related applied research such as feasibility studies or needs assessments are eligible)
- Salaries and other operating expenses of schools and public agencies.
- Annual campaigns or special events
- Creation of, or addition to, endowment funds
- Payment of debt, even for expenditures that would otherwise fall within the guidelines
- Reimbursement for expenditures made prior to the scheduled grant check date
- Agencies that have unresolved, non-consensual liens

BEFORE YOU APPLY

To be eligible for funding, organizations must be current on reporting obligations for past CFMC grants. Final reports for 2018 grants will not be due until after the application deadline, so if you have not completed the program or project funded by a Stanton Endowment grant in 2018, an informal interim status report must be included in your 2019 application. The Grant Committee will review your progress as they consider your proposal. Your final report will still be due as scheduled.

Stanton Endowment grant applicants should use the Community Foundation’s online grant application.
