The Foundation's Board has adopted this Confidentiality Policy to assist the Foundation's directors, officers, employees, agents, fiduciaries and volunteers in fulfilling their confidentiality obligations and commitments. While the policy addresses some common confidentiality concerns, it is not an exhaustive list of all situations where a confidentiality obligation may arise. As used in this Policy, the term "Foundation personnel" includes the Foundation's directors and officers, employees, agents, fiduciaries, consultants and volunteers.

General Rule: The Community Foundation respects the privacy rights of its employees, both past and current, and maintains its personnel matters and records in the strictest of confidence. While serving on the Board, Foundation Board members may have access to or become acquainted with information concerning past and current Foundation employees, personnel matters, salary and pay scale information. Such information shall not be communicated, disclosed or otherwise utilized for any unauthorized purpose, whether such information was gained within or outside the scope of the member's service on the Board.

Individual Board members should not respond to inquiries or requests for information concerning past or current Foundation employees, personnel matters or records, or information concerning Foundation salaries or pay scales. Any such inquiries or requests for information shall be referred to the President/CEO. Board members who receive such inquiries or requests for information shall immediately notify the President/CEO.

Confidentiality of Donor Information: Except as required by law, the Foundation will not disclose information about a donor or a donor's gift. However, unless otherwise requested by the donor, the Foundation may publish the names of individual donors in the Foundation's Annual Report and other reported listings. In the case of memorial gifts, the Foundation will provide the names of donors to members of the immediate family unless the donor has requested anonymity. The Foundation will not disclose the amount of any gift without the donor's consent. The Foundation may accept anonymous gifts.
